E            A
Religious people
          E/G#            A
You white-washed tombs
E                    A
Beautiful on the outside
                  E/G#        A
But you're full of bones

          A            D
You look very religious
                  A/C#            D
You follow all your little rules
          E                    A
But you don't follow Jesus
          E/G#                A
You just talk like you should

F#m, E/G#, A, B    C#m
Woe to you, woe to you
F#/A#
All your pretty words sound
E/B
Like filthy rags
B    B7    E A/E Am/E E
Woe, woe to you

Prosperity and progress
You say bless me indeed
You fill up your bank accounts
While children die in their need

One day you'll retire
You'll have a house on the sea
But my friend where your treasure is That's where your heart's gonna be

Woe to you, woe to you
You call him Lord but
He's just your genie
Woe, woe to you

Where is the justice?
Who's preaching the truth
Your sermons are entertaining
And your churches are cool

You're grieving His Spirit
And You're winning the lost
To a worthless religion
Cause you don't talk about the cross

Woe to you, woe to you
Your gospel is tickling our ears to death
Woe, woe to you

                  C#m    B/D#
Where is the justice and mercy
          F#m    E/G#  A  B    E/G#  B/F#
And walking humbly with Your God
                  C#m    B/D#
Who's caring for orphans and widows
          F#m    E/G#
And living holy in this world
          A    B    E/G#  B/F#
For this is what He requires

Woe to you, woe to you
For many will come to Him on that day
And say Lord, Lord, but He'll say
Woe, woe to you

F#m, E/G#, A, B  C#m  F#/A#
Woe to you, woe to you
